

Four-point perspective

1. All horizontal lines are straight and converge into two vanishing points on the horizon.
2. All vertical lines are curved and converge into two vanishing points - one far above and another far below the cube.
3. Two side plane of a cube are visible.

